

Vocational Pathways and Flexible Learning 'VET 2021'

Year 10 into Year 11
Course Counselling
Information

GENERAL INFORMATION

- ▶ Vocational Education and Training (VET) is a way for you to experience the world of work in a range of occupations whilst still at school.
- ▶ All VET courses are designed to prepare you for the world of work and/or further training, predominantly at TAFE.
- ▶ Each course can be one, two or three semesters in length dependent on the qualification.
- ▶ Typically, students will be required to complete one day a week off-site at a school, TAFE or a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) for the duration of the course

VET in SACE

- ▶ As part of their SACE, students can complete VET that is within the AQF (Australian Qualifications Framework).
- ▶ The SACE Board's recognition arrangements enable students to build meaningful pathways in the SACE through VET.
- ▶ The recognition arrangements for VET in the SACE include recognition of:
  - ▶ completed qualifications
  - ▶ partly completed qualifications (for which a student has completed one or more units of competency).

VET in SACE

- ▶ The SACE enables students to include a significant amount of VET in their SACE studies. Students can gain recognition for up to 150 SACE credits at Stage 1 and/or Stage 2 for successfully completed VET.

SCHOOL BASED APPRENTICESHIPS AND TRAINEESHIPS

- ▶ The training you do as part of your School Based Apprenticeship or Traineeship (SBAT) can also count towards your SACE
- ▶ Opportunity to combine VET training, with an employment contract whilst still completing your SACE - speak to VET leader

VET FOR TERTIARY ENTRANCE

- ▶ VET can count towards tertiary entrance for university and TAFE
- ▶ For completed VET qualifications to count as Recognised Studies, they must be:
  - ▶ Certificate III level
  - ▶ recognised in the SACE at Stage 2 for at least 10 credits.
- ▶ VET can only count to a maximum of 20 credits in an ATAR

COURSE SPECIFIC INFORMATION

- ▶ NEVO (North Eastern Vocational Offerings)
  - ▶ NEVO Brochure and the NEVO Student Information Sheets available from the NEVO website. Students must read these information sheets carefully, in conjunction with this curriculum handbook. Students looking to undertake a NEVO course must also register their interests on the NEVO website.
